

سوگِ جمعی ہمدلی است نہ ہمبستگی

A large-scale photograph of a destroyed urban area, likely a refugee camp. The scene is filled with rubble, twisted metal, and debris. In the background, a large, dark, smoke-filled sky looms over the ruins. A tall, thin pole stands in the distance. On the right, a multi-story building is partially visible, showing signs of damage. In the top left corner, there is a red square icon with a white cross and a plus sign, symbolizing medical aid or a humanitarian organization. The overall atmosphere is one of devastation and suffering.
